Devotion Rubric

Step 1: Pray--Ask for the Holy Spirit's guidance first of all and that God may reveal the lessons that He wants you to have that day. Request that God protect you from Satan's distractions (and the devil will try to distract you whether it is pinching the baby or putting you to sleep). Ask to see God more clearly as you read and think about the passage.

Step 2: Read the passage--Read to get an overview of the information first. Then start looking at specific parts after the first reading. You may read a larger or smaller section than I have here because you do not have to follow my organization at all.

Step 3: Understand the passage--You can summarize, ask and answer your own questions about the passage, visualize the story, analyze the characters, and relate this passage to other scriptures and personal experiences.

Step 4: What does this reveal about God?--What do you learn about the Father, Son, and/or Holy Spirit from this passage?

Step 5: Apply the lessons of this passage to your own life.

Step 6: Prayer
